Testimonials

Sensational building – brings another landmark to the Central Coast. Really enjoyed the launch – thought the overall atmosphere the gallery creates is excellent – with the cinema and the way you can easily walk through the Gallery and see everything – lots of space. Great food – fabulous.

Stephen Gittoes, Starr Partners Real Estate

The Ken Duncan Gallery at Erina is not only a significant new attraction for both locals and tourists, but a testament to Ken's creative and strategic vision. A true multimedia mecca, with Ken's remarkable photography at its heart, the Gallery will serve both the region and its people as a source of economic investment, tourist appeal and education and mentoring in the photographic arts. Louise Duff, Brilliant Logic

Just wanted to say that I enjoyed your new Gallery immensely. I appreciate the style and uniqueness of the building from the outside, but nothing prepared me for the magnificence of the view when I entered. This new attraction has enormous potential and is a significant asset for the Central Coast as a great venue in which to showcase artistic talent.

For many years I have found Ken's work inspiring. As a devotee of photography and a passionate Australian Ken has shown the world the beauty of this enchanting country through his accomplished art form. The beautiful Galley at Erina Heights adds yet another element to the Ken Duncan experience, bringing you in contact with some of his most inspiring work, both visually and spiritually. A visit to the Ken Duncan gallery is a treat for the senses and good for the soul.

Andy Mathers, General Manager, Star 104.5FM

I was fortunate enough to have received an invitation to attend the grand opening of the new Ken Duncan Gallery at Erina Heights. On arrival at the Gallery and seeing the completed building I found myself overpowered with mental descriptors...fresh, exciting, elegant. Upon entering the building you are again struck as you enter the gallery display...spiritual, creative, real. Then onto the theatre...thoughtful, instructive, giving. Then finally the café...delightful, inviting, tranquil. Congratulations, the Gallery is an absolute credit to you."

"Just wanted to say thank you! Training was a fabulous success last week and the venue was amazing. On behalf of myself and Rachel, we really appreciate your help in making everything run as smoothly as possible. Your staff were friendly and helpful and the food was incredible also! If we return up your way; we'll be sure to use your venue again."
