Gallery Manager: Freya Herring

The Ken Duncan Gallery in Sydney is located in The Rocks – the birthplace of our nation - near where this country's first church service took place in 1788, under a great tree in George Street North. The tree has gone now, but hopefully our Gallery will provide a sanctuary for every visitor, in the heart of one of the world's busiest cities.

Testimonials

I just wanted to thank you so much for assisting me through every step of purchasing some new prints. Your understanding of what I was after, your quick response to showing me those prints which matched my description, your clear explanation of their cost and the discounts which apply (due to being an existing client), all with a smile and professional warmth; I greatly appreciate it. I'm looking forward to visiting again soon – I always leave with a smile on my face.

"I just wanted to pass along a little note as I often find myself searching on the Ken Duncan website as I absolutely love his work. 10 years ago when I travelled to Australia as a 19 year old just out of High School I purchased the 'Beautiful Sydney' print and shipped it home. I have been living with my parents until this year when I got married and purchased our first home with my new husband. I've had this print hanging in the interim at my parents home and it was the one thing I couldn't wait to get hung on the wall in our new place. It's right over our fireplace and I enjoy it daily. It is my ultimate favorite thing and I couldn't be happier with it. I receive so many compliments and just wanted to pass along my thanks 10 years later as I am just as much in love with the print today as I was 10 years ago. My parents are travelling to Australia in January and I have told them they must check out the gallery in Sydney. I think they are looking to fill the wall where my print hung for so long ;)"
